

Are you looking for a hen do that's a little more...you? At Koa Tree Camp, we're low on tinsel and tutus, but we're high on natural beauty, outdoor space, fabulous food and a warm welcome.

With our wonderful geodomes and cabins, plenty of outdoor space, and our spacious Rainy Day Room and kitchens, Koa Tree Camp is perfect for hens looking for somewhere quirky, relaxed and unique for their perfect 'do.

Whether you want to hit our beautiful local beaches for a surf with your girls, play a game of rounders on the site, curl up round the woodburner with a hearty meal and plenty of fizz or shake off the night before with a hangover yoga session, we can help you create your ideal hen do with a festival feel. We'll light the campfire and lay on the marshmallows, you relax and enjoy being totally spoiled.

How does it work?

We know that planning a hen do can get complicated, with endless costs and decisions to be made. So we've made it easy for you with three packages that are wrapped and ready to go, with a simple per person cost (based on a minimum of 15 people). Not exactly what you want? We've got a list of extra add ons so that you can easily customise your package.

Plain and simple

After just the bare bones and keeping costs down? Our bare bones package includes accommodation in our fabulous geodomes and cosy cabins, use of our spacious communal areas – including kitchens and bathrooms as well as our massive Rainy Day Room complete with ping-pong table and woodburner – welcome drinks when you get here, lazy checkout at 2pm and a campfire and marshmallows. Bring your own bed linen to keep the costs down. You can pick your own extras to add on to personalise your package.

Just the chick-et

Everything included in the Plain and Simple package, plus your choice of a barbecue or pizza night on one of your nights. All of our food is locally sourced and organic where possible, with seasonally inspired flavours, and there are sample menus a little further along in this pack. Linen is included, so you can arrive to freshly turned down beds and comfortable Egyptian cotton sheets, and we even throw in a hangover yoga session to gently shift some of thenight before – or soothe aching surfing muscles.

Fully feathered

Our biggest and best package includes everything Just the Chick-et does – except we swap your barbecue/pizza night for a three course supper club-style dinner. You'll also get use of our yurt cinema and we'll bring you over a breakfast banquet to set you up for the day.

We've created this easy table so that you can see exactly what you get for each package
